Illicit Desire Kasey Millstead

2014-02-19 Beau Diesel...He was my "one". My one that I would sacrifice everything for. My one that I wanted to be with until I took my final breath. My one that completed me. I wanted him. I needed him. But he was off limits. I knew this, but the risk of consequences didn't outweigh the depth of my desire. So, I fought for our love. But, I wasn't Beau's "one". So, he fought against our love. He fought so hard, eventually I had to give up. I had to admit defeat. But, that's the thing about love - when you're down and out, true love wins. It prevails...and it raises you up.

Cowboy Dreams Kasey Millstead 2014-06-21 My decision from moving from Sydney, NSW, to Pine Creek, NT. was purely selfish ... to begin with. My best friend Edie, gone off on an adventure to find herself, and instead she'd found the love of her life. Not wanting to be left behind, I decided to follow her. I made this choice for a few reasons. First, I didn't want to be without my best friend. Second, I'd slept with my boss, and trust me, once that happens, shit just gets awkward! And third, on a visit with Edie, I'd met a man.

Brutal Discoveries Kasey

Millstead 2016-06-22 South Glenn Maximum Security prison wasn't for the faint at heart. The inmates weren't there because they stole some cookies from the cookie jar. They were serial murderers. Rapists. Pedophiles. The worst of the worst. It was at South Glenn that 'Sweet Treats' bakery owner, Scarlett Everett met two men who would change her life. Damon Salt was a man serving life without parole that she was paired with for a volunteer program called Friends for Lifers. Prison guard Aden West was tall and tanned with indigo eyes and a strong jaw smattered with dark hair. Just a hint of what promised to be a sleeve of tattoos peeked out from the cuff of his button-down shirt, which combined with his buzz cut, gave him a bad boy edge Scarlett didn't know she was attracted to until she stood there trying the catch the breath he took away. One had the power to destroy her heart, the other had the power to destroy her life as she knew it. *Brutal Discoveries is a full length standalone
